

REIMBURSEMENT REQUEST FORM

Thank you for supporting ophthalmology education in developing countries. By supporting ophthalmology education, you are helping create a sustainable impact in the developing world. Only books mailed using USPS Media Mail rate will be reimbursed. The following rates are not reimbursable: USPS Priority, First Class or International; UPS; FedEx and DHL.

Please list the title and author, as well as the quantity of each book you sent to a GML recipient location, and return this form along with (1) the original USPS receipt and (2) the Sender copy of USPS Customs Form Declaration & Dispatch Note for each box.

| Title and Author of Educational Resource | Qty. |
|---|-------------|
|   |             |
|   |             |
|   |             |
|   |             |
|   |             |
|   |             |
|   |             |
|   |             |
|   |             |
|   |             |

|         |  |
|---------|--|
| Name    |  |
| Address |  |
| Phone   |  |
| Email   |  |

Please check here if you would like to be added to SEE's mailing list, and hear more about our work in the fight against preventable blindness worldwide. You can opt out at any time.

5638 HOLLISTER AVE., SUITE 210, SANTA BARBARA, CA 93117 | PH: (805) 963-3303 | FAX: (805) 965-3564

Surgical Eye Expeditions (SEE) International is a non-profit 501(c)(3) humanitarian organization that provides medical, surgical, and educational services by volunteer ophthalmic surgeons with the primary objective of restoring sight to disadvantaged blind individuals worldwide.